NEWS/SPORTS

Listen for the latest news on WXDU at 10 am, 2 pm, and 5 pm every day.

WXDU will be broadcasting many Duke sports events live once again this year. Stay tuned to 88.7 for details. And watch for Sportstalk, our half-hour sports talk show.

SPECIAL SHOWS

On weekends, WXDU features some of our most popular programming - our special shows. Tune in for reggae, blues, women's music, New Age (including the syndicated "Hearts of Space"), international music, rock 'n' roll, acoustic rock, jazz, and much more - all hosted by experts in their fields!

GIVEAWAYS

WXDU gives away hundreds of dollars worth of stuff every month. Listen and win posters, albums, and free tickets to see local, national and international bands in area clubs.

THE COFFEEHOUSE

This year, WXDU turns Duke's Coffeehouse into an all-ages club every other Friday, with local and national bands rockin' at low prices. Listen to WXDU for more details and come out and support the bands!

DUKE STUDENT RADIO

Fall Schedule '86

A BRIEF EXPLANATION. . .

ladies and Gentlemen, punks and janglers, welcome to the Premiere Edition of the WXDU Program Guide. My name's Raoul Duke, and I've been asked to guide you through this little publication. WXDU wanted to put this guide together to give our listeners and potential listeners more information about us.

Many people say to me, "Raoul, what is the essence, the soul of WXDU?" A very philosophical question, indeed! So, listen up, y'all! 'XDU is totally dedicated to alternative new music. We play everything from known, more-mainstream artists (REM, The Smiths, Elvis Costello) to underground, unknown groups like The Flaming Lips, Phantom Tollbooth, and The Primitons. What are we trying to accomplish? Education! Yours and ours. We love hearing new bands and we love playing them for our listeners to groove to. College radio has taken bands from being no-names to being household names. And that's not all, jack. We're gutsy, too. We play bands that you'll never hear on commercial radio, 'cause they're not pretty enough, rich enough, or "popular" enough to be on Top 40 stations. In other words, we play music that's different, radical, and powerful. We're not for the masses, and we don't wanna be. I think one listen to 88.7 will bear that out. You'll hear some familiar tunes and love it, but then don't turn the dial when that unheard band comes on! Stay tuned and expand your musical knowledge. Listen to the interviews 'XDU does with bands on tour. Win the tickets and new albums we giveaway. Use us! Exploit us in order to better broaden your tastes. That's what we're here for. So use this Program Guide - check to see when your favorite DJ's are on-the-air. Listen and learn! And call our request line - 684-8870 or 684-8871. We all share this mania for great music, right? So, keep rockin'. . .
